

Question:

Is it legal to bribe, bully or blackmail

	No	Yes
1. a juror in a court case	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
2. a voter in an election	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
3. an MP in parliament	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Answers

1. No. Jury Tampering is a criminal offence
2. No. Electoral Fraud is a criminal offence
3. Yes, this is legal. Whipping MPs to vote for something, to vote against something, or not to vote at all, is common practice.

These rules apply to voting in elections:

Offering money for your vote is a criminal offence

Forcing you to vote a certain way
is a criminal offence

Make these rules apply in parliament.

Your MP must be allowed to represent you first, not the people who run the party s/he belongs to.

Make every vote in parliament
a free vote in a secret ballot

Make Whipping Illegal

you-first.uk

